

FACULTY AWARD NOMINATION

As part of our annual Awards Reception, the Center for Disability and Access (CDA) recognizes faculty members who have contributed and promoted a positive environment for students with disabilities. The award will be presented on Wednesday, April 24, 2019.

We ask you, a student who has received accommodations, to nominate a faculty member who has shown sensitivity and a strong willingness to assist students with disabilities. The nominations can be made by any University of Utah student with a disability and must be submitted by Friday, April 5, 2019. Please only one nomination per student.

The criteria for nomination include:

- Has or is working with a student registered with CDA.
- Has or is collaborating with CDA on accommodations and general disability issues.
- Understands and responds to the broader implications that challenge students with disabilities.

Nominations can be made by completing this form and submitting it to Stephanie Piani, Center for Disability and Access, 162 Olpin Union Building or email: spiani@sa.utah.edu. A committee of staff will make the selections.
